History of the Dev Valera Trophy

This Perpetual Trophy was awarded in 1946 by the late Eamonn De Valera for the supreme horse of the show. Mr. De Valera made a special effort to attend the County Clare Agricultural Show annually to present the trophy to the winning owner. In later years before his death the late Dr. P. J. Hillery President of Ireland attended the show and presented the trophy.

INFORMATION FOR EXHIBITORS

1. The requirements set out below are intended to protect the health of animals at Shows and Sales. To minimise the risk of exposure to disease, exhibitors should.
  - Move animals direct from farm to show site.
  - Disinfect the vehicle used to transport animals before and after use.
  - Insist that all steps necessary to protect animals are taken by the show committee
  - Ensure that the required documentation which should accompany the animals is in order before the date of the show and contact the local District Veterinary Office when deciding to exhibit at any show.
2. T.B. Status:
  - All animals must come from herds which are not restricted and the herd and relevant animals must have had a clear herd test within the previous 12 months.
3. Brucellosis Status:
  - All animals must come from herds which are not restricted. All eligible animals (i.e. females and bull aged 12 months and over) must have passed brucellosis test within the previous 60 days. However these animals may move to any number of shows within the validity period of the same 60-day pre-movement test.
4. Identification:
  - All cattle must bear double plastic tags as issued under the Department's identification system and must be accompanied by their passports.
